The Texas Numismatic Association has several member classifications. One of these is chapter or better known as club. Each club is an independent organization, subject to TNA rules only as the conduct of the club affects TNA as an organization. When a club is host to the annual convention, TNA rules prevail. When a club promotes a coin show, local club rules prevail and TNA has no authority to interfere in the format of the show such as: dealers invited, hotel or motel reservations, security, location of dealers tables, etc.

TNA by-laws provide for expulsion of a member for certain offenses and misconduct. When a member has a complaint, put the charge in writing and be prepared to confront the accused.

The dates and location for the 1981 TNA convention are May 1, 2, 3, North Park Inn, Dallas, TX. Barney Welch is the general chairman. The more hotel rooms we reserve, the less expense to TNA for space. Room rates are nominal as per today's prices. Reservation cards will be available soon so make your reservations early.

There will be a general meeting of the TNA membership in Austin on Sept. 28, 1980. One item to be voted on is an increase in dues from $7.00 to $8.00 per year. This increase is a necessity due to the increase in the cost of producing the TNA NEWS.

Dates for the 1983 convention to be held in Corpus Christi are April 15, 16, 17. The auction for 1981, 1982, 1983 and 1984 will be conducted by Pullen and Hanks of El Paso.

There are approximately 100 TNA members who have not paid 1980 dues. Club representatives - here is an opportunity to do some work! AND start the new convention year by getting a new member!

QUEEN MOTHER ON COIN

For the first time, Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth, the Queen Mother of Great Britain is portrayed on a coin. Commemorating her 80th birthday anniversary, the Isle of Man issued a one crown .925 fine silver proof coin, weighing 28.28 grams and measuring 38.6 mm in diameter which portrays the Queen Mother on the reverse and Queen Elizabeth II on the obverse. It can be purchased from Pobjoy Mint, 93 Oldfields Rd., Sutton, Surrey, England

TO HELLEN

On Sunday, May 18, 1980, the Texas Numismatic Association suffered the loss of an appointed officer, one who has served willingly, faithfully and efficiently for several years as historian.

TNA, as an organization, lost a friend. Each member who had any contact with her was treated as a friend and not as an acquaintance.

Friends are not expendable. Friends are not replaceable. Friends are a treasure to be cultivated and cherished. Each officer both elected and appointed cherished her friendship.

To Hellen Rust, we are grateful for all you have done for the ongoing of TNA; however, the greatest contribution you have made is being a friend to each of us.

SATURDAY BREAKFAST

TNA President Bartee was speaker at the Saturday morning breakfast meeting of governors and club representatives. Bartee discussed the increasing problems facing coin clubs in lack of attendance and enthusiasm and the slow progress in gaining new members and creating interest. A round table discussion was held on what some of the clubs in Texas are doing to overcome their problems.

Joe Wade of Ft. Worth was named TNA's Outstanding Governor and received a plaque for work done in spreading numismatics in his area. Gateway Coin Club of San Antonio captured 1st place in the annual Club Salute award with Stephenville Coin Club placing 2nd and Amarillo Coin Club 3rd. Honorable Mention went to

This buying ad Is not just a lot of hot air . . .

Every year for the past 20 years, thousands of collectors, investors and other dealers have found that Robert L. Hughes has offered the highest prices for their material. As a matter of fact we estimate that about 75% of our purchases are being made from other dealers. This means you usually get more by dealing directly with us!

Our dealers indicate that they want to spend $10,000 dollars a month. We are And we want more. We can pay immediately for individual entries or collections valued at $1,000,000-$10,000,000 and up! The transaction is completely confidential and you can be paid in CASH if you wish.

If you hear of an important collection that may be for sale, let us know. Robert L. Hughes pays generous finder's fees on consummated transactions.

We don't dream of large coin purchases. We are constantly making them. Here are the actual figures for numismatic material which Robert L. Hughes has acquired in recent months:

We extend "get well" wishes to Richard Schweers, C C. Andrews, Mrs. D.O. Joplin, Hank Rodgers, Augusta Folda, C.H. Roberts, Shirley Williams and "B" Howard. We missed them all at the TNA convention. Joe Wade accepted his Outstanding Governor's award with a broken arm. We hope he is on the mend by now.

Among dozens of hams and large stocks of cheese, salami, chocolate, diesel fuel and firewood, firemen fighting a blaze at a large villa in Italy found $600,000 in lire in an old refrigerator. The owner told them he stocked up as a hedge against inflation and war. The money wasn't damaged, but the food and fuel were destroyed....

A bar owner in Hanoverton, Ohio is a coin collector and he has his collection laid out in plain view for all to see - 331 cartwheels inlaid in the top of his walnut bar. He owns (appropriately named) "The Silver Bar." Each dollar was donated by a customer. There are a few odd coins in the collection, 1961 Canadian coin and two 1931 silver coins from the Republic of Panama. The bar owner is not worried about anyone stealing the collection or hauling the bar away for its silver. Each is pounded into a hole a mite smaller than the coin, flush with the wood surface, and held firmly in place with epoxy (oh my). The entire surface is sealed with enough varnish to make the top slick and smooth. The 16-foot-long bar would have to be demolished to remove the silver....

A new U.S. postage stamp was released in May. It features Dolley Madison, wife of the fourth U.S. president, James Madison. The new 15-cent stamp is mini-size, same as the 1978 Indian Head cent stamp which proved successful in the sales department. The smaller size stamps cost less to produce and bring in the same revenue as the larger ones.

WE NEED YOUR EARLY TYPE COINS

The Douglas Weaver buying philosophy can be summed up in one simple rule that we always try to follow.

We would rather pay too much for nice problem free coins than to accumulate an inventory of potential bargains that we need to apologize for.

When we attend major auctions, coin shows, or travel to purchase collections we do so fully prepared to exceed every other offer in order to come away with the coins we need.

Presently we need to purchase a varied selection of early United States type coins (1793-1807) to fill want lists and to balance our regular inventory.

It is our contention that when buying early type each coin must be carefully judged on its own merits and not lumped into general categories of value and condition. We also maintain that much of the current pricing information that is available should be considered as only very general guides. We are fully prepared to pay whatever it takes to obtain nice coins.

If you have something nice to sell in early type please give us an opportunity to meet your price or make an offer. We're confident that you will like our straight forward, no nonsense way of doing business.

Junior Readin' Roundup

Texas Numismatic Assn.

Linda Runkle, Youth Chairman

4304 Jennie Ave. Amarillo, TX 79106

How many times have you been invited to a party? You probably have lost count up to now. And how many parties have you gone to? You probably don't remember for sure. I imagine that most of you have given at least one party in your life. Some have given a party, even if it was only a birthday party.

You probably noticed how some parties are more exciting and interesting than others. Some times the activities or the people seem to make a party take off. Other times the party just seems to die out.

There are lots of different kinds of parties, such as birthday, surprise, pajama, slumber, all night, Christmas, New Year's, house warmings and good old Texas pizza parties. But I've come up with a new kind of party - a NO-

PARTY party. My party was a ONE person party. ME. There was a shortage of juniors even present at the convention including visitors. I could count every young person on my fingers.

Needless to say the party died out early, so I left. It was a shame, it could have been a good party too. I guess that's life, too bad it is such a drag.

The above planned pizza party was for the juniors attending the TNA convention in Houston.

ROBBERS KILL DEL RIO DEALER

Joe Keller, 40, owner of Keller's Coin & Tobacco Shop, was shot and killed by robbers in May, according to reports received from Del Rio police. Keller was a member of the Texas Numismatic Association.

Officers were hunting for two men who took an undetermined amount of money and escaped in a car after the mid-morning incident.

New officers head Stephenville Coin Club and are: Ellis (Buddy) Randals, president; Bill Miller, vice president; Maxine Dameron, treasurer; Mary Miller, secretary; Phil Davis and Bob Neely, auctioneers, and Morse Ross, program chairman. Directors include Bill Stem, Phil Davis, Michael Adcock Jr., and Natalie Adcock will act as assistant junior director.

Following the election, Morris Johnson gave a talk on the Carson City dollars and the GSA distribution plans.

The club won 2nd place in the TNA Club Salute and Joe Wade, TNA Dist. I governor, made the presentation. Wade complimented the club for being only three years old and having accomplished a fine record in promoting numismatics in the area. Past President Morris Johnson and junior members, Michael and Natalie Adcock joined to receive the award.

PINBACK BEGAN GALINDO COLLECTION

Reprinted from "The Kelly Field Observer"

A small metal pinback with a picture of the Spirit of St. Louis obtained six years ago started Frank Galindo of San Antonio collecting Charles A Lindbergh mementos.

The pinback that came into his possession in 1974 commemorated Lindbergh's flight as the first man to fly solo across the Atlantic. The journey took Lindbergh on a 3,600-mile non-stop flight May 21-22, 1927, from New York City to Paris. Since the pinback, Galindo's collection has grown to some 400 pieces.

What sparked an interest in a flight 53 years ago? Galindo said he has always had "an interest in pioneer aviation and historical flights." To him, it seemed only natural to collect memorabilia of Lindbergh's historic flight.

Through the items he's found, some nearly as old as the flight, Galindo figures he can "relive an era of bygone days" and look in on Lindbergh's world of the 1920s and '30s.

The items are as varied as Galindo's search. He can show the interested onlooker medals, tokens, games, toys, sheet music and records. Among his unique collection are perfume bottles, jewelry, a bedspread, a wooden chest and a tapestry registered and made in France. The collection also includes books, magazines and newspaper articles by or about the Lone Eagle and his monoplane.

After Lindbergh's historic flight, thousands of souvenirs, novelties, toys, jewelry and pictures were manufactured. Some, channeled into Galindo's hands, bear Lindbergh's name and image. Others picture the silvery monoplane in which he crossed the Atlantic.

Eighteen countries, which issued stamps on the 50th anniversary of Lindbergh's flight, are represented in Galindo's collection. Among the most distant nations are Mongolia, Upper Volta, Ivory Coast, Togoland and Liberia.

One of the model planes Galindo owns is a 24-carat gold ceramic piece made in Italy.

Shortly after the 33½-hour flight, some memorial cachets appeared. One envelope bears the date June 20, 1927, only a month after the flight. Another promoted air mail service, an occupation to which Lindbergh returned in 1928.

Even children shared in the mementos. A beanie that would adorn a boy's head is made of linen. The hat is still in good condition. So are two tin pencil boxes with "We," the title of Lindbergh's own personal account of his air voyage, stamped on the front.

What piece of his collection does Galindo prize most highly? He hesitates, but suggests the best memento may be a rose-colored bedspread "in almost mint condition." The bedspread alternates pictures of the monoplane and Statue of Liberty.

What would Galindo like to find that he doesn't already have? A Lindbergh doll would please him.

Galindo goes about his search for Lindbergh mementos in several ways. He haunts flea markets, antique shops, book stores and stamp shows, which he reveals have proven lucrative for a number of cachets he's found.

SILVER COINS SPARK INTEREST

Among the new silver coins which have generated the most interest within the international numismatic community is Canada's 1980 one dollar coin which shows a portrait of Queen Elizabeth II on the obverse and depicts the great Canadian polar bear "Ursus Maritimus" on the reverse.

The coin, commemorating the centenary of the transfer of a major part of the Arctic territories from Great Britain to Canada, can be ordered from the Royal Canadian Mint, Box 457 Station A, Ottawa, Ontario K1N 8V5, Canada.

NEW LESOTHO COINS

From the Kingdom of Lesotho, which is, according to the British Royal Mint, the highest country in the world and is called the "Roof of Africa," comes an interesting sterling silver 10 Maloti coin bearing a portrait of the reigning monarch, King Mosheshoe II on the obverse and the nation's founder, King Mosheshoe I on the reverse.

This silver proof coin commemorates Lesotho's first independent circulating coinage, weighs 28.28 grams and measures 38.6 mm in diameter. Additional information may be obtained from the British Royal Mint, 128 Passaic Ave., Fairfield, N.J. 07006.

Large-sized notes became obsolete in 1929 when the U.S. Treasury Department reduced by one third, the size of the currency.

COLLECTIONS WANTED

We are actively seeking collections—USA, Mexico and Latin American. Any size. If you are seriously thinking of selling your collection, we will either buy outright, trade for bullion coins, or handle thru one of our auctions—whichever will bring you the best price for your collection. We will also consider individual rarities, especially in gold or silver.

If interested, please contact either Dr. George Vogt or Don Bailey. We are also interested in servicing your want list.
